

Educational component	Elective educational component 4.2 «Ukrainian-Polish relations»
Level of higher education	First (bachelor) level
Name of specialty / educational-professional program	291 «International Relations, Public Communications and Regional Studies» / «International Relations»
Form of study	Full-time
Course, semester, duration	2nd year, 4th semester, 5 credits
Semester control	Credit
Number of hours (total: including lectures / practical)	150 hours (10 lectures, 20 practical)
Language of instruction	English
Department that provides teaching	Department of International Relations and Regional Studies
Author of the Educational component	PhD in Economic Sciences, Associate Professor, Iлона Балак
Brief description
Requirements for the beginning of the study	To have basic knowledge of the international relations history. To have the skills of scientific analysis and conceptual thinking.
What will be studied	The Ukrainian-Polish relations development peculiarities in different spheres
Why it is interesting / necessary to study	Bilateral relations between Ukraine and Poland have a long historical past. In the modern era, the states are important partners. The Volyn region, as a border region with Poland, has a number of advantages that are worth to be realized.
Why you can learn (learning results)	To know the nature and character of interactions between the states and regions at the global, regional and local levels; To understand and defend the national interests of Ukraine in international activities.
How to use the acquired knowledge and skills (competencies)	The ability to analyze international integration processes in the world and on the European continent, and Ukraine's place in them. Awareness of Ukraine's national interests in the international arena.