

Discipline	Optional discipline № 6.2 «European Union: Anamnesis and Diagnosis»
Degree of higher education	Master
Name of specialty / study programme	International Economic Relations / International Economic Relations
Mode of study	Full-time
Year of studies, semester, duration	2 nd year, 3 rd semester, one-semester
Semester control	Pass/fail test
Number of hours (lectures and seminars), credits	120 (10/14), 4 credits
Language	Ukrainian or English
Department in charge	International Economic Relations and Project Management
Author of the discipline	Andrii Boiar
Short description
Prerequisites	Basics of international law and economic theory
What will be studied?	Economic effects of international integration, factors and forms of international economic integration, global economic position and role of the European Union (EU), economic policies of the EU, financial resources of the EU, economic effects of the common market and monetary union in Europe
Why is it interesting and should be learnt?	Relations between Ukraine and EU have progressively intensified and presence of the EU in Ukraine and visa-versa is more and more obvious. That is why realizing advantages and disadvantages of close integrational relationship with the EU from geoeconomic perspective are interesting and important.
What can be learnt? (study results)	Prerequisites and effects of economic integration in Europe, organizational and financial foundations of the EU functioning; strong and weak points of a country's participations in the processes of the European integration; global geoeconomic strategies of the EU; mechanisms of utilization of potential for economic integration in the EU.
How can the acquired knowledge and skills (competences) be used?	To be competent analyzing economic events and situation in the EU, to develop economic relations with the EU at corporate and public authority levels.
Suggested readings	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Baldwin R. and Wyplosz C. Economics of European Integration. 4th edition. McGraw Hill Higher Education, 2012. 654 p. (in English). 2. European Union: textbook / eds: A. O. Boiar, S. V. Fedoniuk. Kyiv: FPE Maslakov, 2020. 600 p. (in Ukrainian).